This is the enthralling story of two worlds...

The world we see before it and the world of hidden, "dark" forces within their two universes. But how they meet, when, and whether they discover each other's existence.

They jettison with vibrant sub-facts to challenge you.

Explore the realm of the hidden and learn to use your senses to increasing power to find the hidden, and to conquer them. For these forces shall enter the arena on your behalf, whenever goblins or other magical creatures block your path.

The hidden, the more firm pillars of magic, are becoming uncontrollable, even beginning to fight amongst themselves. There are many rumors of gangs of sinister goblins, and a forgotten prophecy promises a single hope of saving the world of magic before it breaks apart.

Visit the Hidden Portal to explore countless visions in the magical land of Zephyrus.

There is one person capable of running the two worlds. An ancient old man who is yet long forgotten of his power and his forgotten for both worlds.

*The Legends speak of a long forgotten
prophecy...*

*W*hy should she, of all people, be the one to receive the key to Zanzarah? The key to that mysterious world of elves, goblins, dwarves, and faeries? A long, long time ago, these creatures of legend had lived in fear to Zanzarah, their own private paradise.

But this haven of peace is becoming more and more like a prison. Magic is being shaken to its foundations, and Zanzarah is threatening to plunge into chaos. A forgotten prophecy promises a single hope of saving the world of magic before it breaks apart.

The prophecy says nothing of a girl with more heart than muscle... her fate seems to be strangely linked to the events in Zanzarah, and so she must discover her calling to make the best of both worlds...

- A fantastic 3D adventure full of faeries, goblins, demons and more
- Battle the darkness as Amy, an exceptional girl with incredible powers
- Dozens of spells from 12 different categories
- Collect and train faeries to make a deck and to send them out to battle your enemies.
